BOOKLAUNCH

Look Who's Morphing, by Tom Cho

to be launched by William Yang

On Thursday 28 May
6pm for 630pm

At Gallery 4A
181-187 Hay Street, Sydney NSW 2000

Gallery 4A is pleased to present in association with Giramondo and Writing and Society Research Group at the University of Western Sydney, a series of innovative and adventurous public programs featuring Asian Australian writers, which coincide and expand upon Gallery 4A's exhibition program featuring Asian-Australian artists.

The first of these events is the Sydney book of Tom Cho's book Look Who's Morphing. A modern day Gulliver Travels, the hero romps through a series of surreal adventures spanning across Western pop culture with encounters with the Dr Phil, the von Trapp family, The Muppets, Godzilla and Whitney Houston's body guard. A new adventure awaits with each waking moment.

Look Who's Morphing will be launched by renowned artist and performer William Yang at Gallery 4A at 630pm on Thursday 28 May, with a reading by Tom Cho from his book.

Tom Cho is a 34 year old writer from Melbourne. He has performed at various literature festivals across Australia. His stories have been published in Australia, USA, Canada, Japan, Malaysia, France, Sweden and Italy. He is currently completing his PhD in Professional Writing at Deakin University. www.tomcho.com Alongside working with artists, Gallery 4A is keen to nurture an engagement with Contemporary Asian culture in Australia. Gallery 4A recognises the contribution of individuals to Asian Australian discourse and is keen on promoting diverse cultures through the arts.
